

INFORMATION TO HELP WITH BARKING DOGS IN THE CITY OF PHOENIX

When there is a problem with barking dogs, it is helpful to talk to or leave a note for the animal owner. Although this may be difficult to do at first, communicating with the animal owner is usually the most effective way to resolve the problem.

Talking to your neighbor:

- Try talking to your neighbor when you are not frustrated about the barking.
- When approaching your neighbor, be calm and discuss the barking in a friendly manner.
- Inform your neighbor of the time of day or night that the dog is barking.
- Ask the neighbor whether you can contact him/her, day or night, when the barking is a problem.

If leaving a note for your neighbor:

- Explain what the dog does when the family is away from the residence.
- Choose words that are not offensive or intimidating to the dog owner.
- If you feel safe doing so, include your name, telephone number, or address in the note so your neighbor can respond.

MEDIATION SERVICES SOLVE PROBLEMS

If talking to or leaving a note with the animal owner does not work, try mediation. Mediation can save time and money, and can lead to a resolution without resorting to the court process.

What can mediation offer you?

- Quick resolution of the problem
- A satisfying solution
- Privacy and confidentiality
- No police, no courts
- No judgments and no blame
- A non-threatening, problem-solving environment

Filing a petition may result in criminal misdemeanor charges being filed against the dog owner. This process will take approximately 3 months before it is set to trial.

Effective March 1, 2013, mediation will be required before a criminal complaint will be considered. You can file a Barking Dog Petition if mediation doesn't solve the problem.
